Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Redeemer: A Series of Opening Services for the Sunday School, Founded on the Life of Jesus Christ The Selections from the Scriptures in the thirty-four Regular Services herein contained, together with the Superintendents Readings which precede them, make up a history of the life of the Saviour as recorded in the four Gospels. The Revised Version - a few marginal readings being made use of - has been uniformly followed. Each service has a Responsive Reading, a Chant, a Prayer, and a Hymn, which are selected or written with reference to its Selection from the Scriptures. Thus each service, as well as the whole series, is a unit. It was thought best that the Regular Services should all be formed upon a single model; and the content and length of the model service were such as seemed, by the acceptance given to various service-books now in use, to be adapted to the taste of the largest number of schools. In using one of these Services, the Sunday School as a body will take part in all except the Superintendents Reading, reading in concert the Responses, the Selection from the Scriptures, and the Prayer, and singing together the Chant and the Hymn. Services for Special Occasions and for the Infant Class have also been inserted. The latter have been prepared by one who for many years has had charge of a large primary class, and will therefore be found especially adapted to their purpose. The suggestion that services for the closing of the School be added, was not acted upon, because it was the general opinion that the most fitting closing service consists of the...
