By Sterling Andrus Leonard

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . All In the Foreword the Editor points out the fact that play-publications, and especially the one-act drama, are usurping the place of the short story in the esteem of the reading public The result is that a large amount of good and bad dramas are appearing and naturally we find the high school classes and others reacting to them, and should have some carefully chosen bases for our judgments of this class of productions. This volume furnishes exceptionally helpful guidance along this line. There is a thoughtful and discriminating Introduction on the reading of plays, followed by more than a dozen of the best ones for amateur use; also Questions for Discussion, Notes on the Dramas and Dramatists, and the Bibliography above referred to. This is a volume with a mission. - Education, Vol. 42 [1922] The List of Plays: The Philosopher of Butterbiggens by Harold Chapin Spreading the News by Lady Gregory The Beggar and the King by Winthrop Parkhurst Tides by George Middleton Ile by Eugene O'Neill Campbell of Kilmhor by J.
