Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from With the French Eastern Army Earl Kitchener in the House of Lords: During all this time the long line from Lille to Verdun was maintained intact by our French allies against constant attacks from the German forces. The French Army have shown the greatest tenacity and endurance and have displayed the highest fighting qualities in thus defending their position against any advance of the Germans. For although they have made notable advances at various points, they have never yielded up a yard of their country since I last addressed your lordships. Earl Curzon: Glad I was to hear the noble Earl include in his tribute words regarding the tremendously heavy part that has been played by the French.
