I shall inviolably preserve in my heart that gratitude for all your favours, that zeal for your service, and that true, unaffected love for your person, which I have never knowingly departed from. 1 He subscribes himself as your Grace s obedient, faithful, and most humble servant, and, not content with this, adds the assurance of his greatest respect. Yet, next to Harley, Bolingbroke was the chief cause of the Duke s undoing two or three years later. Well might the Duchess write the following bitter comment in her old age on the back of the original letter, which is preserved at Blenheim: I need not say anything of Mr. St. John s behaviour, when he got into power, to the Duke of Marlborough, but that the Duke never...
