Luke 22: 53. Truly it was their hour to whom the Saviour spoke. - Long had they cherished the bitterest feelings towards him; once in their rage had they attempted to thrust him from the brow of a hill, but were foiled; soldiers had been ordered to seize him, but returned empty handed, saying, Never man spake like this man; the Sanhedrim had taken counsel together to put him to death; but up to this time, fruitless had been their endeavors to secure him whom they so deeply hated. They would have laid hands upon him as he taught in the temple, but they feared an uproar because of his popularity. But now they had ascertained his whereabouts, and about ten o clock at night you might have seen a company of men going out of the gates of Jerusalem armed with swords and bludgeons, some bearing torches, some lanterns, wending their way down the hill, across the ravine, out towards the garden of Gethsemane. While they are passing over the half mile between the walls of the city and their place of destination, let us go to the garden. Although the moon, now nearly at its full, is in the zenith, yet its rays scarcely penetrate the thick foliage of the trees and we almost need a light. We pass eight men near the entrance.
