And as we examine through the pages of history, whether among the nations who have been conversant with the Sacred Law and Record, or of those who were unacquainted with the Hebraic and Christian systems, we find that the highest physical development, the farthest advance in civilization, and the greatest national power have been attained by those branches of the race who have appeared to be most earnest in carrying out the original injunction. And of the leading men and great thinkers of all ages, those who have been most venerated and who have earned and received most of the enduring gratitude of their fellow-men, have either been discoverers of additional resources, or organizers of movements in the same general direction of accumulation and advancement; and at this period of human existence no one who claims to...
