Tyrone on February 20, 1794. His father was a small farmer, the father of fourteen children, of whom William was the youngest. After getting some education, first from a hedge schoolmaster, and then from Dr. Keenan of Glasslough, Carleton set out for Dublin and obtained a tutorship. In 1830 he collected a number of sketches, and these were published under the title of Traits and Stories of the Irish Peasantry, and at once enjoyed considerable popularity. In 1834 came Tales of Ireland, and from that time forward till his death Carleton produced with great industry numerous short stories and novels, though none of...
