

Signal Box Coming Up, Sir!: And Other Railwaymen's Stories

By Body, Geoff; Parker, Bill

The History Press, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 0752460404 This entertaining collection of railwaymen's experiences presents genuine situations and incidents that occurred over the last fifty years. Embracing a great variety of humorous anecdotes, it charts both successes and disasters. 'Moving a farm, a circus and a "bing," 245 miles of marooned railway, 246 prostitutes, daring robberies, footplate adventures, animal capers, royal and children's specials, mishaps, characters, unusual lines and activities and summer madness- these are just a few of the subjects embraced in this assortment of memorable experiences from a number of professional railwaymen. These memories come from the last half century in a complex and varied transport business, culled from all parts of the country and all kinds of traffics, jobs, and events, planned and unplanned. It is an entertaining, instructive, and highly readable feast for railway people and anyone with even a passing interest in life on the railways: there's never a dull moment! Editorial Reviews Geoff Body worked in the railway industry from 1945 to 1976 and has been writing on railways and canals ever since. He has written a great number of books and articles over the years, including Railway Oddities for The History Press, and...

READ ONLINE
[5.6 MB]

Reviews

Comprehensive information for book lovers. This is for all who statte that there had not been a worth studying. Its been printed in an remarkably simple way which is simply following i finished reading through this pdf where actually modified me, change the way i think.

-- Rebekah Smith

Undoubtedly, this is actually the finest work by any writer. It is really basic but excitement within the fifty percent of your publication. Your way of life period is going to be enhance as soon as you comprehensive looking over this ebook.

-- Matt Maggio