Good Heaven, all know, hath made the man; But / have made the knight! --Young ladies goodly dight and fair, Are at the porch beneath. Melitha, Bold Earl s daughter, there, In filence, twines a wreath. Pronounce Meleetha. She binds the twigs with golden thread And ties of fairy fpell. Some ween, it is for Ercon s head; But that fhe will not tell: -- Ha! Hearken!--It is--They come! they come! What mouting! What running to meet! All hear the marching and loud drum! drum! Each would be the firft to greet.--Now yon, fome lift Erc off the way;--Now fet him in a chair Bedight with flowers and cherry-bay;--Now carry him hither from there! What...
