This has been brought about by various technological advancements which, albeit having made life much easier, have consequently resulted in lenience. A lax mindset is a precursor for accidents and incurs greater losses during disasters due to insufficiently managed risk. Disasters are sudden catastrophic events, either natural or human-instigated, that result in a grave disruption of normal day-to-day life. Additionally, they cause extensive damage on the environment, multiple deaths, widespread loss of material goods, and great distress amongst those affected. These phenomena are often unpredictable and may lead to irreversible damage if not properly prepared for. And, to top it off, human response to such situations adds to the danger. Chaos runs amok, people panic and fend for themselves, and electricity, gas, water, and telephone lines may be cut off for days to weeks, or even months....
