Castle Keep Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Ahoy, Maties! All aboard for adventure! No one had lived in the lighthouse on Rock Island for twenty years . not since its keeper, Hannibal, mysteriously disappeared. Some say Hannibal s ghost haunts the tower. Others say pirate ghosts from long ago guard their horde of gems and gold that lay at the bottom of a cove. Many searched for the treasure, but brought home only tales of strange noises and bizarre incidents. When Zack and Curtis Himes investigate the legend, they find more than cobwebs in the dark, shadowy rooms of the lighthouse. The boys are engulfed by a world of hidden passages, disappearing corpses, and a knife-wielding stranger, who threatens their lives. The brothers search escalates into a struggle to stay alive. Can they beat the odds and solve the mystery . or will they join the company of ghosts and haunt the island for all eternity? ABOUT THE AUTHOR: The author was born in Germany, the daughter of an American serviceman. She attended college in Texas, while working in the medical field. A sense of adventure led her to Arkansas, where she began a career as a Deputy Sheriff and County Animal Warden. Lillian Davis now resides in New Mexico, her time devoted to writing and family.
