South Carolina Association Meeting a Success In a business sense and socially, the fortieth annual meeting of the South Carolina Pharmaceutical Association, held July 26th and 27th at Isle of Palms, was a thorough success. The meeting was well attended and was marked by a number of lively discussions and the reading of some interesting papers. Officers were elected as follows: President, J. M. Oliver, of Orangeburg; vice-presidents, I. A. Rigby, of Spartanburg, and D. T. Riley, of Florence; and secretary-treasurer, F. M. Smith, of Charleston. W. C. DeLorme, of Charleston was elected as a member of the South Carolina Board of Pharmacy. The 1917 meeting will be held at Greenwood in July. Utah Association Wants a Pharmacy School At the sixteenth annual meeting of the Utah Pharmaceutical Association, held at Logan, President R. S. McAllister, in his official address, recommended that a committee on legislation be named and its duties fully defined; that the members of the association lend every aid toward the proper enforcement of the state laws affecting pharmacy; and that a pharmacal department be established at the state university. The association agreed with...
