It is urgent everywhere; and in some places it is the voice of distress. Wherever our arms have prevailed the old social system has been destroyed. Masters have tied and slaves have assumed a new character. Released from their former obligations, and often adrift in the world, they naturally look to the prevailing power. Here for instance, is testimony which I take from an excellent report made in the department of Tennessee, under date of April 29, 1883: Negroes, in accordance with the acts of Congress, free on coming within our lines, circulated much like water: the task was to care for and render useful. They rolled like eddies around military posts: many of the men employed in accordance with Order No. 72, district West Tennessee: women and children largely doing nothing hut eating and idling, the dupes of vice and crime, the unsuspecting sources of disease. From this statement Senators may form an idea of the numbers who seek...
